Introduction

The creation, expansion or renovation of a farm building may require a building permit. Farm buildings that may require a permit include:

- Livestock housing facilities
- Concrete or steel manure storage structures
- Feed storage structures

A Nutrient Management Strategy or Minimum Distance Separation II calculation may be required prior to applying for a building permit. Contact the Planning Technician at 613-386-7351, ext. 170 for more information.

How to Obtain a Building Permit

Review this guide and contact the Building Department to discuss the requirements for your specific project.

Prepare drawings, plot plan, complete permit application and obtain necessary documents.

Submit application to Building Department

Applications will be reviewed by staff for sufficiency of completion. Applicants will be notified within 2 business days if the application is incomplete. Incomplete applications will be placed on hold until all necessary information is received. Complete applications will be reviewed within 10 business days.

A Building Inspector will contact you to inform you of any additional information required or to advise the permit has been approved.

Visit the Township office to pick up the permit, sign paperwork and pay fees. The permit is not considered issued until all fees have been paid.

Permit Fees

2026 Building permit fees for farm buildings are calculated at $18.73 per $1,000 of construction cost. Construction cost is calculated at $20 per square foot. The minimum building permit fee of $100 applies to all permits.

Commitment to Accessibility

If you are a person with a disability and need Loyalist Township information in another format, please contact 613-386-7351, extension 100, during office hours or email info@loyalist.ca.
